The Louisiana's Birth to Five Early Learning and Development Standard course is designed for all early childhood educators and administrators who work with programs that serve children ages birth through five. This course is divided into the following three parts with each part consisting of several lectures: Part 1 covers the history and reasoning behind the development of Louisiana's Birth to Five Early Learning and Development Standards and the actual organization of the standards; Part 2 focuses on the first two domains of development addressed in the standards, which are Approac

"This new text for early childhood special education pre-service and in-service teachers provides a unique and much needed focus on how to collaborate effectively with the wide variety of professionals who work with young children who have developmental delays." Rather than limit discussion to the types of developmental disabilities young children may experience and the role of the special education teacher, this new text explores the wide variety of professionals across disciplines who provide services to children with disabilities.
