Company lawyer or student! Here’s Boyle & Birds -- now in the new updated 9th edition. An appreciation by Phillip Taylor MBE and Elizabeth Taylor of Richmond Green Chambers. This new edition remains an authoritative examination of law and practice of company law and it also places theoretical issues under scrutiny. This and its plain language approach make it ideal for those studying for examinations, as well as laymen, for that matter, seeking to extend their understanding of company law. This edition incorporates further significant case law developments that have taken place over the past few years.
